PLEDGE FOR FLORIDA'S CHILDREN

- ◆ Florida ranks 49th in the nation in providing health insurance for children.
- ◆ Florida ranks 43rd in the nation in high school graduation rates.
- ◆ Florida ranks 48th in the nation in preparing high school students for college, based on college entrance exam scores.
- ◆ Florida ranks 48th in the nation in juvenile incarceration rates.
- ◆ Florida ranks 50th in the nation in individual spending on education, but ranks 16th in spending on corrections.

Worst To First (www.WorstToFirst.org) is a statewide initiative working to put Florida's children first. Today Florida ranks at the bottom in many indicators of our children's health, education and welfare. Let's invest in Florida's children. Help us protect their health and give them an education for the future. Join us in raising our voices, volunteering our time, and signing the Worst To First pledge to support the children growing up in our state. Help us raise them to be strong citizens. ONE MILLION SIGNATURES IS OUR GOAL.

I therefore pledge to support better investments for the success of our children. I believe we must put Florida's children first by protecting their health and safety and giving them an education for the future.

YES, I will make the pledge!
